

Missouri Department of Elementary and Secondary Education

— Making a positive difference through education and service —

April 28, 2006

Dr. Dorn Schuffman
Missouri Department of Mental Health
1706 E. Elm Street
Jefferson City, MO 65102-0687

Dear Dr. Schuffman:

This letter is to provide you with information regarding the process your agency will need to complete in order to be eligible to receive federal funds under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA) for State FY 2007.

Please note: Even if your agency does not receive any IDEA Part B funds, your agency is still required to have a local compliance plan and submit annual assurances to DESE regarding the provision of services to students with disabilities under the IDEA.

Because, we do not have final regulations from the reauthorization of the IDEA 2004 from the Office of Special Education Programs (OSEP) to implement the revised statute, we will again this year, operate under the statutory provisions. Local agencies that provide services to students with disabilities must affirm, through assurances, that they will implement all provisions of the federal statute, as amended, as well as all state and federal regulations that do not conflict with the federal statute, throughout the period of the grant award.

Spring 2005, the Division of Special Education pursued state statute and state regulation changes. Compliance with those changes must also be assured. The changes proposed were made to address (1) any provisions in state statute and regulations that have been determined to be in direct conflict with the federal statute and (2) to make changes where there is a benefit to schools, parents and students and where there is no anticipation that the statutory provisions will be changed by the final regulations. It is important to note that all existing state and federal regulations that are not in conflict with the revised federal statute are still in effect and must continue to be implemented. We do not anticipate that we will be requiring local agencies to revise their local compliance plans until final state and federal regulations are published. However, any provisions in your local plan that are inconsistent with state or federal statute or regulation are superseded by federal statute and state statute and regulation.

Attached to this communication are two (2) Assurance Statements that must be approved before DESE can release federal funds to you. Each agency in the state responsible for providing services to students with disabilities must provide annual assurance to the state agency regarding their program for the provision of these services. Most agencies submit their assurances via the Web when opening their budget with the Funds Management section. However, there are several agencies that because of their unique nature do not have the responsibility for opening a budget with the Funds Management section. According to our records, your agency does not open a budget with the Funds Management section of the Division of Special Education. Therefore, please complete the statements and have them signed and dated by your agency Director. Submit the signed and dated copies no later than September 30, 2006, to the attention of Compliance, Division of Special Education, Department of Elementary and Secondary Education, P. O. Box 480, Jefferson City, Missouri 65102.

As indicated in the previous paragraph, this year there are two assurance pages that your district must agree to. One is the general assurances document and the other is to give assurances concerning your agency's decision about whether or not you will work with the National Instructional Materials Accessibility Center (NIMAC) when providing print materials to students with visual impairments. First, your agency must assure that they will adopt the National Instructional Materials Accessibility Standards (NIMAS) for print materials being used with students with visual impairments. Second, your district may indicate whether it is going to "opt in" or "opt out" of working with the NIMAC in accessing print materials under the NIMAS. If your agency "opts out" of working with NIMAC, it must then assure that students with print disabilities will receive high-quality accessible materials in a timely manner.

Important information regarding NIMAS and NIMAC can be found at the following websites: <http://www.nimac.us/faq.html> and <http://nimas.cast.org/center/exemplars/exemplar2.html>. Agencies are encouraged to review this information and become familiar with the provisions of this requirement before making final decisions regarding participation and submission of the assurances.

Also attached to this communication is a checklist of those areas of the IDEA in which there were substantive changes. When you sign your assurance, you are indicating that your district has in place procedures to implement all of the indicated changes. Please review this document carefully to be sure that procedures are in place to implement the indicated changes as of July 1, 2005.

If you have any questions regarding the General Assurance Statement or the procedures for submission, please contact the Compliance Section at 751-573-0186 or via e-mail at webreplyspeco@dese.mo.gov. If, after reading the information on NIMAS, you still have questions you may contact Betty McCartney or Wayne Goddard in the Effective Practices Section at 573-751-0187 or Susan Borgmeyer in the Compliance Section at 573-751-0699.

Sincerely,
